SUMMER BARBECUE AT THE BAY
14th Star Brewing Co. beer
available for purchase

Let's get together again for the 2017 SAAWA Annual Meeting!
Come join us for an update on our progress and enjoy some good food, great beer, and wonderful people.

GUEST SPEAKER (6:30 pm)

Commissioner Emily Boedecker
Vermont Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC)

PLEASE RSVP by Aug. 27 so we can plan for food.
Admission is FREE but donations and membership renewals are sincerely appreciated. If you can't attend, you can renew online.

SAAWA is actively engaged in projects aimed at directly improving water quality NOW
such as weed-harvesting,
blue-green algae remediation,
implementation of sensible land use regulations, invasive species monitoring and shore cleanup.

MAKE A DIFFERENCE — JOIN US!
We are in need of activating new board members as well. Our group meets 1-2 times a month where each member does a small part to make a BIG difference!

QUESTIONS? Please contact SAAWA Secretary Jeff Moulton at 802.238.9319 for more information.

HOPE TO SEE YOU ON THE 30TH!

RESTORE the BAY

If you are unable to attend, you can help by
RENEWING YOUR MEMBERSHIP
Your membership will help strengthen our voice, increase our ability for lake cleanup projects and connect you with our organization.

All membership levels will receive periodic SAAWA newsletters and information. (Providing your email address helps us reduce costs.)

Lake stewards receive a signed Mike Winslow book on Lake Champlain; and business members receive a sponsor link on our website. Larger donations are gratefully accepted.
